

Mission Statement

YBFIT Training is a Training Provider constantly striving to provide unmatched training courses in the Fitness Industry.

We provide qualified, skilled tutors and assessors to deliver and assess a wide variety of courses and CPD training in the Health and Fitness Industry.

These qualifications are fully accredited and endorsed to meet industry standards and sit on Qualification Framework.

We offer bespoke training to suit the needs and requirements of both learners and employers.

It is our goal to provide you with first class training taking you beyond your expectations and higher than your dreams.

We are committed to providing first class training courses to all those who want to be first class instructors in the Health and Fitness Industry.

We strive to build good relations with all who train with YBFIT Training and all who work for YBFIT Training.

Equal Opportunities

INTRODUCTION

YBFIT Training believes in equality of opportunity for everyone. YBFIT are committed to ensuring that all employees and students are treated equally in respect of their gender, race, marital status, disability, age, sexual orientation or religion.

STATEMENT OF POLICY

- (a) It is YBFIT Training policy to ensure that no employee or student receives less favorable treatment on the grounds of gender, race, marital status, disability, age, sexual orientation or religion. YBFIT Training is committed to the positive promotion of equality of opportunity in all aspects of business.
- (b) The application of training and recruitment will be on the basis of job/course requirements and the individual's abilities.
- (c) YBFIT Training will not discriminate on the basis of gender, race, marital status, disability, age, sexual orientation or religion when recruiting employees or students.
- (d) Students will be provided with appropriate training relative to their needs regardless of gender, race, marital status, disability, age, sexual orientation or religion.
- (e) Employees will be provided with appropriate training regardless of gender, race, marital status, disability, age, sexual orientation or religion.
- (f) The outcome of all formative/summative assessments will be judged on the student's ability, competence and knowledge of the subject, regardless of gender, race, marital status, disability, age, sexual orientation or religion.
- (f) All employees will be made aware of the contents of this policy.

MONITORING

- (a) It is the responsibility of the Operations Manager to ensure that all aspects of this policy are kept under review and operated throughout the organization.
- (b) Circumstances will be fully investigated when it appears that applicants/students/employees are not being offered equal opportunities.

Complaints Policy

YBFIT Training has a commitment to good practice in everything and seeks to provide a high standard of service by our qualified and experienced tutors and assessors. However there is always room for improving our standards although we strive to please and provide good customer service and a good training experience.

Should a complaint arise, however, we will deal with the matter promptly, fairly and impartially.

Policy This policy applies to all students and staff. Complaints regarding the following:

- Tutor grievance
- Assessor grievance
- Guided learning
- Student grievance
- Assessment Procedure Complaints should normally be made, in writing, within six months of the incident occurring (unless there are exceptional circumstances). The complaint should be addressed to YBFIT Training (Quality Assurance Manager) who will oversee the complaints procedure and emailed to claire@ybfittraining.com. You will receive an initial response, normally within five working days. Any complaint will be fully Investigated and the outcome communicated to you, in writing, within 20 working days. Appeals Should you wish to appeal against the outcome of your complaint you should contact The Quality Assurance Manager, in writing, within five working days of receiving our response, this decision will be final. Should you wish to appeal against the outcome of assessment results, please see the attached appeals procedure.
- A more detailed Complaint policy with exact steps to take should you want to use it is available by request in writing to Claire Baker at claire@ybfittraining.com and on our website for you.

Assessment Policy

1. All assessments will take place fairly providing equal opportunities to everyone allowing everyone an opportunity to achieve their qualifications, (please see equal opportunities policy)
2. All assessors are fully qualified.
3. All assessment will take place at the time and locations stated by the tutor/assessor or other member of the YBFIT team, this might be subject to change; however if this becomes necessary prior warning will be given.
4. Upon booking and being registered with the awarding body for your course you have 12 months from the course start date to complete all assessments and gain qualification. Otherwise you may need to be re registered and re trained which would incur additional fees.
5. Any reasonable adjustments needed for candidates will be fair and all considerations for these adjustments will be assessed individually once information is passed to YBFIT, tutor or assessor.
6. Adjustments will be made for any who require this according to any disabilities/special needs that YBFIT are made aware of at the time of enrolment or completing an application form.
7. YBFIT Training will do their best to make adjustments/ changes to individual assessment dates venues, environments, paper work or time allowances when required by candidates if their circumstances change between the time of enrolment/application and assessments. Candidates need to alert tutors as soon as possible, but this will also need to comply with the awarding bodies' assessment policy. (Please see awarding body's assessment paper work)
8. If you require any changes to the date or venue for your assessment there may be a charge. (Please see refund/cancellation/transfer policy). If we are required to come and assess outside of our designated venues there will be a charge of £50 - £100 depending on time spent and distance travelling. A system of valid and reliable assessment to national standards is specified and maintained.
9. When handing in Case studies, worksheets, essays or any other coursework to be marked. If the criteria isn't met and more work needs submitting this is classed as a referral and there will be an applicable Re-sit fee of £40 for every time work is re submitted and allocated to an assessor.
10. Assessment paperwork and instructional paper work is available.

Appeals Procedure

YBFIT Training Appeals procedure (Please see Appeals procedure and Complaints Policy) The awarding bodies Appeals procedure are available.

Candidates are assessed against material and criteria provided by the awarding body. Achievement is decided by qualified internal and external assessors.

The Appeals policy and procedures outlines the action which may be taken by any candidates who under exceptional circumstances wish to appeal against the result of the assessment decision.

- A more detailed Appeals policy and procedure with exact steps to take should you want to use it is available by request in writing to Claire Baker at claire@ybfitttraining.com and on our website for you.

Summary of Appeals Procedure*

- There are 4 stages of the appeal procedure.
- The first line of appeal should be with the tutor/assessor.
- Then the internal Verifier
- Then If a student wishes to take this further they should contact YBFIT Training in writing within 20 working days to claire@ybfitttraining.com
- In extreme circumstances, when a student feels that the YBFIT is unable to bring the matter to a satisfactory conclusion, the matter may be referred directly to the awarding body through the paperwork provided in the student's assessment pack.
- Please refer to awarding body appeals procedure.

INDUCTION PROCEDURE

Once we have received your completed application form along with your either your deposit or full payment, we will send you confirmation of your booking via email or along with your course manuals in the post.

Your tutor will contact you to answer any questions that you may have and to guide you through your theory work offering you extra support if required, contact will usually be via email, telephone and directly on attendance days.

You can then start studying at your own pace and convenience in preparation for your theory assessment and course attendance days.

The full balance is required two weeks prior to the start of the course when you will receive an invoice along with further information about your course and the first day of attendance.

Any payments not completed by the start of the attendance day will result in YBFIT holding back either assessment or certification.

Your induction on the first day of attendance will consist of:

- Introduction to your course tutor and other learners
- Health and Safety considerations
- Venue walkout and club instructions
- Completion of paper work
- Overview of the course
- Requirements of the course
- Expectations of learners
- Requirements/procedure for assessment
- Individual learners support
- Questions and answers
- Icebreaker
- Classroom work/Practical work if required In order to achieve the full qualification, you must successfully complete all the required units of your course

Individual needs

Provision can be made and asked for to the awarding body for learners with reading or writing difficulties providing they notify YBFIT Training in advance of the course date. Reasonable adjustments can be made with prior notice and evidence of the individual need the learner has.

Coronavirus - Covid19 Policy

We are operating at our Venues in a Covid safe environment, following government guidelines with social distancing and using PPE where required.
We have a sanitising station in our office and training room and all of our venues are regularly sanitised.

Should Face to Face training be delayed due to government guidelines and advice then our training courses where possible will be taken online via Zoom or on a similar platform.

If the government advice at the time of your course starting means that we cannot run the course face to face then where possible the course will be delivered remotely online via Zoom or a similar platform.
You will be given the option to take the course remotely or transfer the booking to a future course date at no extra cost.

If it is not possible to run the course remotely, booked delegates will have their booking transferred to a date in the future at no extra cost.

If a delegate is required to self-isolate following government advice and is not able to attend a course remotely or face to face we will offer the delegate the option to transfer to another future date at no extra cost.

Please do not come to the training course or venue if you are feeling unwell or display any of the following symptoms:

- High Temperature
- Continuous Cough
- A loss or change to your sense of smell or taste

We are also bound by the Policies and Procedures of all the venues we use so please do respect the individual procedures that may be in place at the venue you are in.
Please follow all health and safety procedures at the venue.
This includes any government guidelines they are following and track and trace procedures that either they or we at YBFIT Training are following.

Once the booking form is returned or an online booking is made and deposits are paid you are bound by these terms and conditions.
